How Joinly works

1

Find a plan you like

Browse by interest, date or distance. Every activity shows who's hosting, who's already going and how many spots are left.

2

Join and say hello

Tap Join to take a spot. You land in the group chat right away, so you can ask questions and get to know people before you meet.

3

Keep the people

Afterwards, connect with the people you clicked with, see what they're joining next and plan the next one together.

Already doing something? Open it up.

Post your weekly run, your book club or a one-off museum trip. You choose the group size, who gets in and whether there's a cost to split.

Post an activity

- Approve who joins — Open it to everyone, or review each request and see people's profiles first.
- A group chat, made for you — Everyone who joins lands in one chat, so meeting points and changes stay in one place.
- Make it a regular thing — Repeat it every week and the same faces keep coming back.

For local businesses

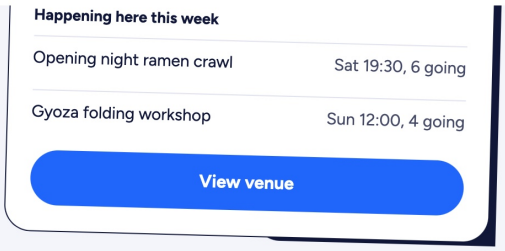

Run a café, club or venue? Get found by people looking for plans.

Joinly connects you with people who already want what you offer. Show off your place, post events and offers, and welcome whole groups through the door.

- Showcase your venue with photos, opening hours and what makes it special.
- Promote events and offers to people whose interests match.
- Host activities that bring in groups, not just walk-ins.

The run at a glance

Distance 8 km loop	Pace Chatty, 6 to 6:30 per km	Group size Up to 12 people	Spoken in English, Spanish
Cost Free	Ages 18 and over

About this activity

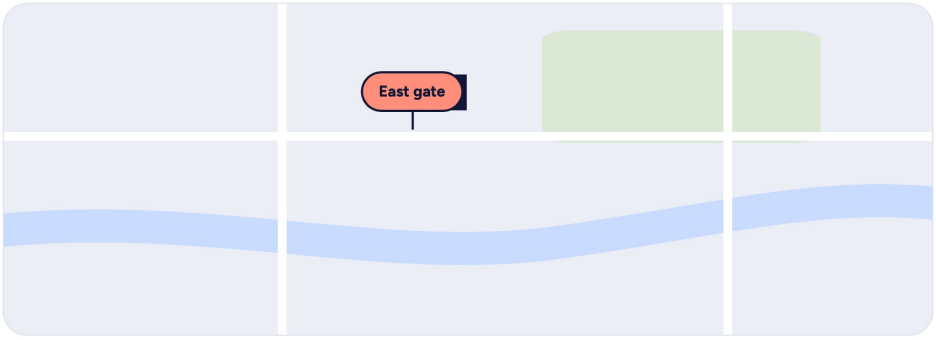

I started this run when I moved here and didn't know anyone. Every Saturday we meet at the east gate, run the river loop at a pace where you can still talk, and finish with coffee at the kiosk by the bridge.

Nobody gets left behind. If you're new to running, we'll split into two groups so you can go at your own speed. Coffee afterwards is optional but highly recommended.

What to bring

- Running shoes and a water bottle
- A light layer, it's chilly by the river at 7:30
- A few coins if you'd like coffee after

Where we meet

Riverside path, east gate. Look for the yellow Joinly flag by the bike racks. The exact pin is shared with the group once

Moved here two years ago for work and decided the fastest way to make friends was to start things. Now I run every Saturday, play badly at five-a-side and I'm slowly learning to throw pots. Say hi, I'm always looking for people to try new things with.
